Subject: Military sales - GCC position

As a follow-up to your meeting a few weeks ago with me and Hagir Elawad of the UAE Embassy, I wanted to forward to you the attached letters. In his role as Chairman of the GCC, Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Minister of Foreign Affairs for the UAE, sent the attached letters to Secretaries Clinton and Panetta. The letters are very straight forward. In summary, they raise concern over the Wyden/McGovern resolutions calling for the suspension of military sales to Bahrain and the consequences on regional security and GCC-US security cooperation.

Please do not hesitate to let me know if you have any questions.

The Honorable Hillary Rodham Clinton
Secretary of State
U.S. Department of State

Washington, DC 20520

Madame Secretary,

It was a pleasure to meet you and Secretary Panetta for the US-GCC Security Dialogue on the margins of the United Nations 66th General Assembly in New York. Our open discussions are always of great value and a sincere pleasure. It is my hope that we will continue to build upon these in the near future, in order to further explore means of solidifying the integral ties between our nations.

Following the substantial progress that continues to be made in talks on GCC-US security cooperation, it is with great concern that I became aware of a recent draft Congressional resolution seeking to suspend the sale of arms to the Kingdom of Bahrain in light of alleged human rights violations. Such a resolution, were it to pass, would run utterly contrary to the spirit of our recent discussions on collective defense.

It is my view that continued and unabated security cooperation with the Government of Bahrain is essential. The outside forces threatening the internal security of the Kingdom constitute a threat to the Gulf Cooperation Council as a whole, and it was for this reason that GCC states, including my own, organized a collective action to ensure the safety of Bahrain's maritime borders and vital installations pursuant to pre-existing GCC security agreements.

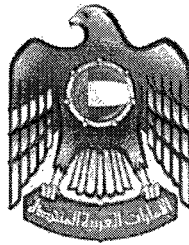

With reference to defensive ballistic missiles and the protection of maritime lanes, due to its location, Bahrain forms a central strategic element in the GCC security architecture. Any suspension or restriction of such sale would affect the region as a whole, and would constitute a victory for antagonistic regional actors, both materially and symbolically. Furthermore, it would deal a serious blow to our efforts to further develop a self-sustaining regional security architecture.

More disconcerting was the wording of the operative sections of the resolution, which at the outset appear to imply a greater role for the State Department in the sovereign affairs of Bahrain, including dictating the style and formation of electoral districts in the country. The resolution in fact goes so far as to indicate that the Government of Bahrain would be punished in the event the report of an independent investigation, chaired by esteemed international legal scholars, be inconsistent with the opinion of the State Department. As I am sure you recognize, Madame Secretary, such wording flatly contradicts the basic principles of sovereignty that form the bedrock of international law.

With regard to allegations of human rights violations, it is our understanding and belief that Bahrain has lived up to its human rights commitments. The significance of the establishment of the Bahrain Independent Commission of Inquiry cannot be overlooked or downplayed. This unprecedented decision will provide Bahrain the opportunity to fully address all the events surrounding its recent crisis. Furthermore, we support the continued efforts by HM King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and the Government as a whole, to engage all elements of the country in both inclusive and direct dialogues. It is my opinion that both individually and collectively, these efforts amply demonstrate the seriousness with which the Government of Bahrain takes addressing the challenges it faces, as well as its determination to continue to live up to its international human rights commitments. Moreover, it is a matter of regret that the draft resolution wholly fails to give due (or indeed any) recognition for such steps, and appears to be based on a wholly misconceived view of the situation in Bahrain.

Madame Secretary,

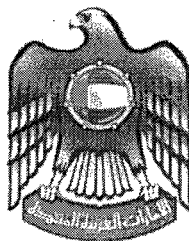

For these reasons, both my country and the GCC as a whole are deeply concerned by the draft resolution. It is my hope that you share the recognition that this resolution is not in any way reflective of the reality of the situation in Bahrain, and that should it pass, it would do serious harm not only to the collective defense of the GCC, but also to the strategic regional interests of the United States of America.

Subject: FW: meeting request for German delegation

I would be very grateful if you would be willing to meet with Minister Roger Lewentz, during his upcoming visit December 12-14th. Mr Lewentz is the new Minister from Rheinland Pfalz where several of the most important U.S. bases are located. There are several issues that they would like to discuss that I believe will be of interest to you.

Rheinland-Pfalz has been a great partner of the U.S. in supporting the US troops in the State and increasing the burden-sharing at the U.S. bases in their State, including improving the training facilities and enhancing the housing for the American troops in Rheinland-Pfalz. Rheinland-Pfalz wants to continue to be an active host region for the US forces there, including strengthening US installations, and providing a comfortable home away from home for US families.

Minister Lewentz would like to discuss the latest developments concerning: 1) recent developments regarding stationing of BCTs in Europe; 2) the German's plans for enhancement of the base at Baumholder (an enduring base which is important to the U.S.); and 3) how Rheinland-Pfalz can support new plans for the new Landstuhl hospital.

Thanks.

US Forces in Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany; State Government Support Initiatives

Dear Congressman Bishop,

the German State of Rhineland-Palatinate has been a strategic partner to the US Forces in Germany since 1951. During the past several years, the State's efforts to support US Forces in Rhineland-Palatinate were conducted by then-Minister of the Interior, Karl Peter Bruch. Recently, I was sworn in as his successor. As you prepare the Defense and Military Construction budgets this fall, please be assured that I will work to support this important partnership during my term in office. I look forward to working with the US government to further develop cost savings for the US Forces in Rhineland-Palatinate.

Today, Rhineland-Palatinate is home to approximately 83,000 US service members, their families, civilians, and contractors serving the US Military at primary US installations such as USAG Baumholder (home to the 170th Infantry Brigade Combat Team), Kaiserslautern Military Community, Landstuhl Regional Medical Center, Sembach Area (future home to HQ IMCOM-E, US NATO Brigade, and the 18th MP Brigade, among others), Ramstein AB (HQ USAFE), and Spangdahlem AB.

The State Government and our citizens welcome the American presence and remain committed to supporting US Forces and their families in Rhineland-Palatinate. The State Government and the private sector have developed a number of initiatives to lower the cost of stationing and to improve the quality of life for service members and their families.

Rheinland-Pfalz

MINISTERIUM
DES INNERN, FÜR SPORT
UND INFRASTRUKTUR

Current initiatives include developing infrastructure and housing to benefit US Forces. These initiatives rely on State Government and private sector funding and could save the Department of Defense significant costs over the next several years.

- The State Government has invested substantially in improving housing quality and availability for US troops and families. For example, it is providing subsidies over the next five years to drive modernization of up to 250 housing units for rent exclusively to US troops and their families near USAG Baumholder.
- The State Government has also partnered with the US to contribute to infrastructure enhancements around the U.S. military installations.
- We have increased German-American programs to enhance the positive and welcoming environment in our State, thus contributing to a safe living environment for US military families.

In December 2011 (10th to 16th of December), I intend to resume Minister Bruch's dialogue with key government representatives and Members of Congress in Washington, D.C.. I would be very pleased to meet with you during this visit and provide you with recent information on the status of further initiatives that the State Government of Rhineland-Palatinate is implementing to support US Forces and their families.

Sincere regards,

Roger Lewentz

Minister of the Interior, State of Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany
